

Serious music
for serious people

Before you start your registration and become a member of the Private Club of Blues Lovers, please carefully read and understand the present User Agreement (it's simple):

1. It is strictly prohibited to transfer, resell and, moreover, distribute on tracker resources all materials bought and downloaded here! The Internet resources are constantly monitored by the Club Administrator (and He is an extremely rigorous guy!). The identified violators shall be fired from the Club without any right to re-enter it, and the violator's moneys paid for contribution will not be refundable!
2. The forum prohibits using coarse language, trolling and insulting of moral, as well as of interethnic and interreligious nature! The identified violators shall leave the Club without the right to re-enter it, and the violator's moneys paid for contribution will not be refundable!
3. When filling the registration form, please provide the Club administration only with reliable information! The identified violators shall be fired from the Club without any right to re-enter it, and the violator's moneys paid for contribution will not be refundable!
4. Any Club member is obliged to make an annual fee (equal to the introductory fee) in the amount of 59 dollars or 49 euro without any reminders. At the same time, each member of the Club is entitled to download 12 albums (1 album per month) for free within a year, having previously notified the administrator using the e-mail and indicating what album he needs!
5. In the premises of the Club, it is allowed to smoke tobacco products, to drink beer, whiskey and cognac (in reasonable quantities) and to dance Rock'n'Roll!
6. Those Club members, who bring here serious and reliable friends, girlfriends and, acquaintances shall be welcomed and encouraged ... That means, not "just passers-by for fun", but those who really love the Blues - (3 free albums for newcomer)!
